

GIET UNIVERSITY

13(O) BN NABARANGPUR

On 15th January 2024, GIET NCC cadets participated in an endurance run to commemorate Army Day. The run tested their stamina, discipline, and determination, reflecting the spirit of the Indian Army. Cadets covered a challenging distance, demonstrating their physical fitness and mental resilience. The event fostered a sense of patriotism and unity among the participants. It concluded with words of encouragement from senior officers, inspiring cadets to uphold the values of dedication and perseverance.

On 26th January 2024, GIET NCC cadets proudly participated in the district-level Republic Day parade. With impeccable discipline and synchronized movements, they showcased an outstanding performance. Their hard work and dedication were rewarded as they secured the 1st prize in the competition. The achievement was a moment of pride, reflecting their commitment to excellence. The event concluded with applause and appreciation from dignitaries, motivating cadets for future endeavors.

On 29th January 2024, GIET NCC cadets actively participated in the convocation ceremony with great discipline. They played a crucial role in managing the event, ensuring smooth coordination and security. Cadets showcased their dedication through their well-organized drills and ceremonial duties. Their presence added to the grandeur of the occasion, earning appreciation from faculty and dignitaries. The event concluded successfully, leaving cadets with a sense of pride and accomplishment.

On 9th February 2024, GIET NCC cadets enthusiastically participated in a marathon, demonstrating their endurance and determination. The event aimed to promote physical fitness, discipline, and a spirit of unity among the cadets. Running through a designated route, they showcased teamwork and resilience. Senior officers and faculty members appreciated their dedication and effort. The marathon concluded with an inspiring address, motivating cadets to maintain their fitness and perseverance.

On 14th February 2024, GIET NCC cadets observed Black Day in remembrance of the Pulwama attack martyrs. A tribute was paid to the brave soldiers who sacrificed their lives for the nation. The cadets organized a candlelight march and observed a moment of silence to honor their bravery. Speeches and discussions were held to reflect on the significance of patriotism and national security. The event strengthened the cadets' commitment to serving the nation with courage and dedication.

On 20th March 2024, GIET NCC cadets had the honor of welcoming CO Sudeep Sir to the college. The cadets showcased their discipline and training through an impressive parade and drill demonstration. CO Sudeep Sir inspected the contingent and appreciated their dedication to NCC values. He interacted with the cadets, sharing valuable insights on leadership and military life. The visit concluded with motivating words from CO Sir, inspiring cadets to strive for excellence in their NCC journey.

On 10th June 2024, GIET NCC cadets participated in the Annual Training Camp (ATC-1) with great enthusiasm. The camp focused on physical endurance, drill practice, and leadership training. Cadets actively engaged in various activities, including weapon handling and obstacle courses. The training enhanced their teamwork, discipline, and survival skills. The camp concluded with appreciation from senior officers, motivating cadets to excel in their NCC journey.

On 4th July 2024, GIET NCC cadets organized a tree plantation drive to promote environmental sustainability. Cadets actively planted saplings across the campus, emphasizing the importance of a greener future. The event aimed to spread awareness about environmental conservation and climate change. Faculty members and officers appreciated the cadets' initiative and dedication. The drive concluded with a pledge to protect and nurture the planted trees for a healthier environment.

On 15th July 2024, GIET NCC cadets actively participated in the Bahuda Jatra with great devotion and discipline. They assisted in crowd management, ensuring the smooth and safe movement of devotees. The cadets also helped in maintaining order during the chariot procession, reflecting their commitment to service. Their efforts were appreciated by the local authorities and the public. The event concluded with a sense of fulfillment, reinforcing the values of duty and community service among the cadets.

On 30th July 2024, GIET NCC cadets actively participated in Annual Training Camp (ATC-2) with enthusiasm and discipline. The camp focused on advanced drills, physical endurance, and leadership training. Cadets engaged in activities like obstacle courses, map reading, and weapon handling. The training enhanced their teamwork, resilience, and military skills. The camp concluded with appreciation from senior officers, inspiring cadets to continue their dedication to NCC.

On 31st July 2024, GIET NCC cadets made an official announcement in the college for NCC enrollment. The cadets informed students about the benefits of joining NCC, including leadership development, discipline, and career opportunities. They conducted an awareness session, explaining the enrollment process and eligibility criteria. Interested students eagerly interacted with cadets to learn more about NCC training and activities. The announcement received a positive response, encouraging many students to join the prestigious organization.

On 3rd August 2024, GIET NCC cadets actively participated in the Annual ISTE Convention, contributing to the event's success. They assisted in event management, ensuring smooth coordination and discipline. Cadets played a vital role in handling registrations, guiding guests, and maintaining order throughout the convention. Their dedication and teamwork were appreciated by faculty members and organizers.

On 4th August 2024, GIET NCC cadets organized a blood donation camp, showcasing their commitment to social service. Cadets actively participated by donating blood and encouraging others to join the noble cause. The event aimed to raise awareness about the importance of blood donation in saving lives. Medical professionals supervised the process, ensuring a safe and smooth experience for all donors. The initiative was highly appreciated, reinforcing the cadets' dedication to community service and humanitarian efforts.

On 12th August 2024, GIET NCC cadets conducted an Anti-Ragging Awareness Campaign to promote a safe and respectful campus environment. They organized an awareness session, educating students about the negative effects of ragging and the strict legal actions against it. Cadets spread the message through speeches, posters, and interactive discussions. Faculty members and senior officers appreciated their efforts in fostering a culture of respect and discipline. The event concluded with a pledge to uphold a ragging-free and inclusive college environment.

On 15th August 2024, GIET NCC cadets proudly participated in the Independence Day Parade, showcasing their discipline and patriotism. The cadets performed an impeccable march-past, demonstrating their rigorous training and dedication. The national flag was hoisted with great honor, followed by a salute and patriotic speeches. Faculty members and dignitaries appreciated the cadets' performance and commitment. The event concluded with a sense of pride and a renewed pledge to serve the nation with dedication.

On 29th August 2024, GIET NCC cadets had the honor of welcoming Col. Jagannath nishanko Sir to the college. The cadets showcased their discipline through an impressive parade and drill demonstration. Col. Jagannath Sir interacted with the cadets, sharing valuable insights on leadership, patriotism, and military life. He appreciated their dedication to NCC training and encouraged them to strive for excellence. The visit concluded with an inspiring speech, leaving cadets highly motivated and determined.

On 31st August 2024, GIET NCC cadets successfully conducted the launching of the TSC (Thal Sainik Camp) training program. The event marked the beginning of rigorous training in drills, obstacle courses, and weapon handling. Cadets displayed enthusiasm and dedication, preparing themselves for the upcoming competition. Senior officers guided them with valuable insights and training strategies. The launch concluded with a motivational address, inspiring cadets to give their best in the TSC journey.

The NCC cadets of GIET University showcased their excellence by participating in the Thal Sainik Camp (TSC) held in Delhi on 3rd September. This prestigious event tested their endurance, leadership, and combat skills in rigorous competitions. Their dedication and disciplined training reflected the true spirit of the National Cadet Corps. Representing GIET on a national platform was a moment of pride for both the cadets and the university. Their participation in TSC further strengthens the institution's commitment to fostering leadership and patriotism.

On 10th September, GIET NCC cadets explored the historical and cultural landmarks of Delhi as part of their Delhi Darshan tour. They visited iconic sites such as India Gate, Rashtrapati Bhavan, and Red Fort, gaining insights into India's rich heritage. The cadets also paid tribute to fallen soldiers at the National War Memorial, reinforcing their patriotic spirit. This educational tour provided them with a deeper understanding of the nation's history and governance. The experience enhanced their leadership skills and camaraderie, making it a memorable journey.

The NCC cadets of GIET University had the honor of facilitating Register Sir on September 20 upon his return from the Thal Sainik Camp (TSC). The event was a gesture of appreciation for his dedication and guidance in training the cadets. Cadets expressed their gratitude through a brief ceremony, highlighting his contributions to their growth. The atmosphere was filled with respect and enthusiasm as they welcomed him back. This event reinforced the strong bond between the cadets and their mentor, inspiring them for future challenges.

The NCC cadets of GIET will participate in a special ceremony at the 13(O) Battalion on 27th September. This event will highlight their dedication, discipline, and commitment to national service. Cadets will take part in various drills, oath-taking, and motivational sessions led by senior officers. The ceremony aims to instill leadership qualities and patriotism among the young cadets. It will be a proud moment for GIET as its NCC unit showcases its training and enthusiasm.

From 4th to 6th October 2024, GIET NCC cadets participated in the Inter-Battalion Competition with great enthusiasm. The event featured various challenges, including drill, obstacle course, and weapon handling. Cadets demonstrated exceptional teamwork, discipline, and physical endurance throughout the competition. Their hard work and determination were recognized by the officials and fellow participants. The competition not only strengthened their skills but also fostered a strong spirit of camaraderie among the battalions.

On 8th October, GIET NCC cadets participated in the Inter-Unit Competition (IUC) camp in Berhampur. The camp focused on rigorous training, including drill, obstacle courses, and weapon handling. Cadets showcased their discipline and teamwork while competing against other units. The experience enhanced their leadership skills and physical endurance. The camp concluded with inspiring words from senior officers, motivating cadets to excel in future challenges.

On 21st October, GIET NCC cadets attended the Inter-Group Competition (IGC) camp at Sainik School, Bhubaneswar. The camp featured intense training sessions, including drill, shooting, and physical endurance tests. Cadets competed against top NCC units, showcasing their discipline and determination. The event provided valuable exposure and boosted their confidence in military skills. Senior officers appreciated their performance and motivated them for future NCC challenges.

On 24th November, GIET NCC cadets proudly celebrated NCC Day with great enthusiasm. The event included a parade, cultural performances, and speeches highlighting the values of discipline and leadership. Cadets showcased their skills through drill demonstrations and patriotic activities. Senior officers and faculty members appreciated their dedication and contribution to NCC. The celebration concluded with a pledge to uphold the spirit of unity and service to the nation.

On 6th December, Tapas Sir, CTO, visited the battalion in Nabarangpur, marking a significant event for the NCC cadets. He inspected the cadets and appreciated their discipline and training efforts. During his visit, he interacted with the cadets, motivating them with his valuable insights and experiences. The session included discussions on leadership, teamwork, and the importance of NCC in shaping future leaders. His visit inspired the cadets to strive for excellence and uphold the values of the NCC.

On 23rd December, GIET NCC cadets enthusiastically participated in a marathon, showcasing their stamina and determination. The event aimed to promote fitness, discipline, and a spirit of unity among the cadets. Running through a designated route, the cadets displayed endurance and teamwork throughout the marathon. Senior officers and faculty members appreciated their dedication and active participation. The event concluded with a motivating address, encouraging cadets to maintain physical fitness and resilience.

On 16th January 2025, the NCC cadets of GIET University conducted a Road Safety Awareness Program to promote responsible driving habits. The event included demonstrations on traffic rules, safe driving practices, and the importance of wearing helmets and seatbelts. Cadets engaged with commuters, distributed pamphlets, and encouraged adherence to road safety norms. The program aimed to reduce accidents and create awareness among students and local residents. The initiative received positive responses, highlighting the cadets' commitment to social responsibility and discipline.

On 23rd January 2025, the NCC cadets of GIET University organized a blood donation camp, showcasing their commitment to social service. Many cadets and students actively participated, donating blood to help those in need. The event aimed to promote awareness about the importance of blood donation in saving lives. Medical professionals ensured a smooth and safe donation process for all participants. This noble initiative reflected the discipline, responsibility, and humanitarian spirit of the NCC cadets.

The NCC cadets of GIET University proudly participated in the district-level Republic Day parade on 26th January 2025. Their disciplined march and synchronized movements showcased their dedication and rigorous training. The cadets represented the university with honor, earning appreciation from officials and spectators. Their participation highlighted the spirit of patriotism and the importance of youth in nation-building. The event was a moment of pride, inspiring many to join the NCC and serve the nation.

On 16th February 2025, NCC cadets of GIET University successfully appeared for the C Certificate examination, showcasing their dedication and discipline. This exam tested their leadership, drill, weapon handling, and theoretical knowledge. Clearing the C Certificate adds significant value to their career, especially for those aspiring to join the armed forces. The cadets demonstrated excellent performance and commitment throughout the evaluation process. Their achievement reflects the rigorous training and guidance provided by GIET NCC.

The NCC cadets of GIET University celebrated Women's Day on 8th March 2025 with great enthusiasm. The event included motivational speeches, cultural performances, and a special tribute to women achievers. Cadets organized self-defense demonstrations to promote women's safety and empowerment. A plantation drive and awareness rally were also conducted to spread the message of gender equality. The event concluded with felicitations for inspiring women faculty and students.

The NCC cadets of GIET University successfully appeared for the 'B' Certificate Exam on 9th March 2025. The exam assessed their knowledge of military subjects, leadership skills, and physical endurance. Cadets demonstrated dedication and discipline throughout the preparation and examination process. This certification marks a significant step in their NCC journey, enhancing their credentials for future opportunities. Their hard work reflects the spirit of patriotism and commitment to the nation.

On 23rd March 2025, GIET NCC cadets had the honor of welcoming our Commanding Officer (CO) Sir to the college. The cadets showcased their discipline and training through an impressive drill parade. CO Sir inspected the contingent and motivated the cadets with his inspiring words. He appreciated the dedication and efforts of the NCC unit in fostering leadership and patriotism. The visit concluded with an interactive session, where cadets gained valuable insights into military life and responsibilities.

The

rank promotion interview in NCC is conducted by the Care Taker Officer (CTO) to assess cadets' overall performance and leadership qualities, it tests knowledge of NCC syllabus, drill commands, current affairs, and general discipline. The CTO also evaluates confidence, communication skills, and sense of responsibility good turnout, proper uniform, and punctuality are important during the interview. The purpose is to select deserving cadets for higher ranks like CPL, SGT, or JUO based on merit.

After a rank promotion in NCC, a cadet usually feels a mix of pride, responsibility, and motivation, the day a cadet gets his rank in NCC, his duty is to start acting as a leader and role model for others. Show proper discipline, punctuality, and dress sense to inspire juniors. Take responsibility ,Guide juniors, Maintain discipline, Communicate with Seniors and Stay humble and dedicated

In NCC, a BC Cadet (Best Cadet) usually has an important role in maintaining discipline and supporting smooth functioning during parades and activities. Maintain Parade Discipline ensures cadets stand in proper formation and follow commands correctly, motivate fellow cadets encourages cadets to participate actively in NCC activities.

Nashamukt Bharat Abhiyan NCC say no to drugs, say yes to life healthy Youth, Strong Nation Together for a Drug-Free India, NCC Cadets Pledge: We Will Stay way from drugs Nasha mukt bharat – hamara sapna, hamara kartavya drugs destroy dreams – choose discipline, choose life. medical treatment provides detoxification and medical support under supervision of doctors.

ATC Camp is the heart of NCC training where cadets learn discipline, teamwork, and leadership, it gives cadets a chance to experience drill, firing, obstacle training, and cultural activities. ATC Camp builds confidence, physical fitness, and a spirit of unity among cadets. Cadets make new friends, learn new skills, and return with lifelong memories, it teaches self-reliance, responsibility, and prepares cadets for future challenges."

NCC cadets play an important role in maintaining discipline during the RathYatra, they help control the crowd and ensure the smooth movement of the procession NCC cadets guide devotees and assist the police in managing security their presence creates a sense of safety and order during the event. Guarding in Rathyatra teaches cadets responsibility, patience, and service to society."

Param Vir Chakra (PVC) is India's highest wartime gallantry award, given for exceptional bravery in the presence of the enemy, It symbolizes courage, sacrifice, and devotion to the nation Subedar Major Yogendra Singh Yadav is the youngest recipient of the PVC, awarded for his heroic actions in the Kargil War (1999). Visited to GIET University and praised for Guard Of Honour.

NCC cadets actively take part in tree plantation drives to protect the environment. They plant saplings and spread awareness about the importance of trees. The program teaches cadets responsibility towards nature and sustainable living, such activities help fight climate change and keep the campus and surroundings green, tree plantation by NCC cadets sets an example for society to care for the environment."

Join NCC and march towards discipline and glory, be strong, be fearless – be an NCC cadet. Serve the nation with pride, wear the NCC uniform with honor, adventure, discipline, and leadership all start with NCC, Your journey to becoming a true patriot begins with NCC.

Winning the 15th August parade was a proud moment for our NCC unit, It showed our hard work, discipline, and teamwork throughout the practice sessions marching on Independence Day and being declared winners filled us with patriotism and joy, this victory motivates us to perform even better in future parades. It was an honor to celebrate India's with such an achievement.

Recruitment of new cadets in NCC is an exciting and proud moment for every student. It gives an opportunity to join the largest youth organization and serve the nation. New cadets are motivated to build discipline, leadership, and a sense of patriotism. Joining NCC opens doors to adventure, training, and personal growth. There are total 35 cadets vacancy in NCC 23 SD cadets and 12 SW cadets so the selection process went smooth and memorable.

