The Intellectual Property Facilitating Centre (IPFC) at Gandhi Institute of Engineering and Technology University, Gunupur, serves as a dynamic hub for promoting innovation, protecting intellectual assets, and fostering an ecosystem of research-driven entrepreneurship. The IPFC-GIET University Cell actively supports faculty, students, startups, and MSMEs in filing patents, trademarks, and copyrights while creating awareness about intellectual property rights through workshops, expert sessions, and outreach programs. On the occasion of World Intellectual Property Day 2026, the centre organized a well-structured ceremony on 25th April 2026 at the IPFC Auditorium, bringing together distinguished academicians and industry experts such as Dr. Asha Hole, Dr. Anita Sabat, and Dr. Gupteswar Majhi. The program featured inaugural rituals, welcome and keynote addresses, institutional presentations, felicitation of guests, and insightful expert sessions, followed by networking and discussion, thereby reinforcing the importance of innovation, originality, and IP protection in academic and industrial growth.
